A Tale of Fractured Identities

Presented by

Dr Criena Fitzgerald OAM

Historian and Researcher, Honorary Research Fellow UWA

Join Dr Criena Fitzgerald as she tells us how, in 1948, more than 1000 Yugoslavs who had made a new life in WA returned with their families to help rebuild their war-torn homeland. They fundraised in WA, sold their homes, farms and market gardens and sailed back in two ships, the SS Partizanka and the SS Radnik.

Back in Yugoslavia they confronted a strange yet familiar country and nearly all returned to WA to begin again.
